

Science Academy welcomes SIPS founder

Dr. Florian Kongoli, FLOGEN President and President of SIPS 2022, with (right) Prof. Jean-Marie Dubois, President of the Lorraine Academy of Science

OCT 14 - Dr. Florian Kongoli gave a presentation where he became an honorary member of the Lorraine Academy of Sciences. Prof. Jean MarieDubois announced Dr. Kongoli becoming an Honorary Member of the Lorraine Academy of Sciences in France due to his greatly beneficial work in the fields of sustainability, technology and applied sciences.

OCT 13 - Dr. Florian Kongoli received the Gold Medal of Nancy. Dr. Kongoli was given this honour due to his work as President of FLOGEN

STARS Outreach, a not-for-profit international organisation focused on promoting science and sustainability through education, governance, technology, management and science, as well as in his role as CEO of FLOGEN technologies, a high-tech applied research institute focused on sustainability through developing sustainable technologies and making existing technologies more sustainable. The award was presented to him by the mayor of Nancy, France, Mr. Mathieu Klein.
www.flogen.org