

Bo Flink

Curriculum Vitae

Airco Alloys AB (renamed 1979 to Vargön Alloys AB)

Trainer alongside an old foreman	11/1968 – 7/1969
Shift Engineer	7/1969 – 7/1972
Day shift production/process engineer	7/1972 - 7/1973
Responsible for HC FeCr production with a colleague	mid/1973 – 1974
Responsible of total redesign of a unit to use low grade ore	1974 - 04/1977
Production Manager HC FeCr Chrome production	04/1977 – 12/1979

Gullfiber AB

Production Manager	01/1980 – 07/1981
Focus on taking care and operating the old glass wool production plant consisting of three small production lines

Construction and Maintenance Manager	08/1981 – 05/1982
Focus on Construction and maintenance.

SKF Steel Engineering AB

Project Manager of "Ferro Alloys" Projects	06/1982 – 12/1983
Managed the department of Ferro-alloys projects.

Process Manager of "Swede Chrome Project"	01/1984 -09/1985
Deeply involved in the project design for process implementation of a new HC FeCr plant using the Plasma Chrome technology being built by SKF in 1983

Vargön Alloys AB

Technical/Process Manager	10/1985 – 05/1986
Focus on technical and process issues.

Plant Manager	06/1986 – 05/2006
Responsible for the entire plant from raw material planning to finished goods in stock for delivery.

Technical Manager

Focus on strategic matters

06/2006 – 03/2008

Technical Director/Senior Adviser/Board Member

Focus on alloy production.

04/2008 – Present

Education

Technical (mechanical) degree from an upper Technical School in Sweden.

Other engagements

- Part owner and board member of a real estate company.
- Part owner and board member of two small shipping companies that work in the coastal freight market mainly transporting grain.
- Board member of "Vargöstiftelsen" Foundation that supports local educational institutes as well as companies and institutes dealing with new innovations in the field of energy and metallurgy.

Personal interests

Plays Golf In summer and downhill ski in the winter. Occasionally does some tourist trips between business travelling.