

Curriculum Vitae of Matthew M Nolan

Senior Partner
International Trade and Investment
Arent Fox LLP
Washington DC

Personal Data:

Male, Married, 3 Children
Born on March 29, 1958, Washington, DC

Education:

Graduated from Tufts University, School of Arts and Sciences, 1980
Graduated from George Washington University, Elliot School of International Affairs, 1984
Graduated from Georgetown University Law School, 1986

Professional Career:

September 1986-December 1995
Associate Attorney, Fulbright & Jaworski

January 1996- September 1998
Partner, Fulbright & Jaworski

October 1998-March 2006
Partner, Miller & Chevalier, Chartered
International Practice Department Chair 1999-2005

March 2006- Present
Partner, Arent Fox, LLP
Trade Practice Head, 2008-2015

Distinguished Activities:

Council of Advisors Member, Elliot School of International Affairs 2001-2015
Canadian American Business Council, Board of Directors 2001-2011
St. Anselm's Abbey School, Board of Trustees 2014- Present
Advisory Council, International Research and Education Exchange (IREX) 2018-Present
Chairman, World Partnerships, 2013-Present.

Recognitions:

Recognized as a leading international trade attorney by Chambers USA

Selected one of the “Best Lawyers in America” in International Trade and Business

Selected for Who's Who of Trade and Customs Lawyers

Selected as a Leading Trade Lawyer by Legal 500